Prescott Steam Laundry
We are particular about our work, and probably more so, than the person for whom we are doing the work. If the washing or the ironing is not absolutely perfect, it is done over again until it satisfies our executive's trained eyes. If you would have the comfort of knowing your linen to be irreproachable let us do the laundering.

THE LOCAL NEWS.... OF THE CITY AND COUNTY

From Wednesday's Daily.

W. W. Elliott, the mill builder, has returned from a trip to Los Angeles.
The Athletic Club smoker which was to have been given last night was postponed until Friday night.

Samuel Wilson, formerly head clerk in the New York Store, left this morning for San Francisco where he has accepted a good position with a large firm.

Al Marsh was last night elected foreman of Troughs Hose company, to succeed Charles Kearley, who has been promoted to assistant chief of the fire department.

T. B. Carter came up from Walnut Grove this morning. He was carrying a shotgun and it was surmised by some that he might be contemplating joining the Japanese army.

The valley was treated to another rain last night. In Phoenix the rain did not amount to much. But a telephone message from the northern end of the valley reported quite a heavy shower there.

The bond election failed to carry yesterday, the result being 380 for, and 345 against the issuance of $20, 000 in bonds for the purpose of making certain improvements on the present high school building.—Gazette.

It is said the latest phase of the statehood question is to admit Indian territories and Oklahoma combined as one state, and take in New Mexico alone as a political coup, leaving Arizona out for the present. That seems to be what the statehood boosters at Washington have been asking for.

P. N. Nissen, manager in this section for Douglas, Lacey & Co., informs the Journal-Miner that he expects to move his headquarters to Los Angeles in a short time. He will visit this section every few weeks and keep a general supervision of the work, but by having his headquarters in Los Angeles it will enable him to enlarge the scope of his work.

Robert Frost, who came to Prescott some two weeks ago from Congress, suffering with what was pronounced miner's consumption, and was taken to the Mercy hospital, died at that place yesterday. He was a member of the Red Men and Workmen lodges and his body will be shipped to Congress tonight by the latter lodge. The only relative he is known to have in this section is a married daughter who lives in Congress.

Mrs. Wagner and daughter, who visited in this city some weeks ago with Dr. Criley and daughters, Miss Clara and Mrs. M. B. Hazeltine, who were old friends in Mazatzel, Ohio, passed through on the north bound passenger today enroute to California from Castle Creek hot springs where they have been staying since leaving Prescott. They will visit in California for a few weeks before returning to their home in Ohio.

F. M. Clute, deputy great inclosure of the Imp. O. R. M., arrived in Prescott this morning from Congress where he has been for several days assisting the members of the tribe at that place to build up their membership. Mr. Clute is an enthusiastic Red Man and has organized several tribes in this territory during the past few months, among them being the tribe at Jerome which is in a most flourishing condition. He will only remain here a couple of days.

A number of the young ladies and gentlemen friends of Miss Maud Marsh gathered last night at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Stewart for the purpose of giving Miss Marsh a surprise party.
The young lady was invited to Mrs.
Stewart's place under some pretense and when she arrived she found herself surrounded by a crowd of friends and the evening was very pleasantly spent until about eleven o'clock when the entire party adjourned to Odd fellows hall where the Relief Corps were having an entertainment. Here they enjoyed a social dance for a couple of hours. Miss Marsh left this morning with her mother for California, where the latter goes with the hope of getting relief from rheumatism which has made her almost helpless for the past three months.

From Thursday's Daily.

Born, in Prescott, February 17, to Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Haggott, a fine son.

Thos. Carrigan, the well known railroad man at Congress, is paying Prescott a short visit.

Deputy Sheriff Wm. Potts has tendered his resignation as deputy sheriff of this county.

Don't forget the dance to be given by the Rebekahs on the evening of February 23 in Odd Fellows hall.

Rev. Ayers, the pastor of the M. E. church at Jerome, will preach in the Marina street M. E. church in this city next Sunday morning and evening.

The local lodge of Rebekahs are preparing to give a dance in the Odd Fellows hall on the evening of February 23, and all people of the city are invited to attend.

R. P. Mason contemplates opening up a mercantile establishment at Camp Verde and left Prescott yesterday with two light teams loaded with merchandise.

A. J. Anderson, a former member of the 12th infantry, stationed at this place, left for his home in Pennsylvania this morning, having completed his term of enlistment.

A letter received today from J. C.
Martin at Los Angeles brings the good news that his son Jay is doing nicely since the operation, which was performed Monday morning.

Washington's birthday will be celebrated by the Ladies Aid of the M. E. church by a Colonial Tea which will be given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Watts on South Pleasant street on the afternoon and evening of February 22.

Among the outgoing passengers this morning were: Wm. McEwen, Los Angeles; Pat Callahan, Hartford, Conn.; G. Ustead, Minneapolis; J.
Conner, San Francisco; Mrs. F. A.
Bletcher, Los Angeles; D. A. Nickle, Dallas, Texas.

The Frenchman who has been confined in the county jail for several days on an insanity charge, was taken to the county hospital yesterday, from which institution he later escaped and gave the attendants quite a little chase before being captured.

S. W. Riley, brother-in-law and boyhood chum of Sam Miller, of this place, is here on a visit. He recently visited Mr. Miller's daughter, Mr.
Hugo Bohan, in Los Angeles. Mr.
Riley will remain here for a few more days before returning to his home in Chicago.

Clyde Cole, brother-in-law of Wm.
G. Campbell, who died in this city a few days ago, arrived in Prescott on last night's train and started home today with the remains. The interment will take place at the former home of the deceased in Michigan.

The Colonial Tea, which the ladies of the M. E. church are making preparations to give on the afternoon and evening of February 22, will be at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Watts on South Pleasant street. An admission of 10 cents will be charged during the afternoon and 25 cents in the evening.

Yavapai lodge, Fraternal Brotherhood, will give a farewell social to Mr. and Mrs. Northrup, their organizers, in K. P. hall on Saturday evening commencing at 7:30. Mr. and Mrs. Northrup will leave Sunday evening for Phoenix where they will help to build up the new lodge. They expect to remain there for several days.
They have many warm friends during their stay in Prescott.

Mrs. J. C. Herndon entertained a number of ladies at luncheon at the Yavapia Club this afternoon, this being ladies' day at the club. The party was given in honor of Mrs. Fred Morrison, of Kingman, who is visiting in this city for a few days. After the luncheon the party was entertained at cards in the beautiful ladies' reception room, and a very pleasant time was reported.

Rev. Henry returned this afternoon from Blanchard where he held services in the big hall last night. He says that the Iron King camp is one of the most ideal camps he ever visited in his life. The houses that have been built for the men and their families are splendid, and every thing has been done that could be done for the comfort and convenience of those who live at the camp. He was also deeply impressed with the moral tone of the place and was surprised at the large attendance of miners and mechanics at the religious services.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rogers, of Detroit, Michigan, were among those who came up from Phoenix this morning. They have been traveling through the west for some time on a sight seeing trip and took a train this morning and started for the Verde valley.
They will remain in the valley for several days and will visit the Montezuza well and Mezuza's castle as well as several of the many other prehistoric ruins in that section before returning to Prescott. They report that it has been quite warm in Phoenix.

Colonel Leavell, adjutant general, returned yesterday morning from a trip of several days in southern Arizona where he went to inspect the various companies of the national guard.
His first stop was at Tucson where he inspected the battalion of university cavalry. From there he went to Nogales and inspected the First troop of Arizona cavalry. At Thatcher he looked over the members of Company A. At Morenci he saw the second cavalry troop. He reports all the companies in good condition. The Morenci troop as yet has no carbines, but it is well drilled and effective; ready for service, if needed, as soon as its armament arrives.
